Rolling up the scroll, he handed it back to the attendant and sat down, and the eyes of all in the synagogue looked intently at him. He said to them "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing."

Served by the Congregation of the Resurrection

When the song of the angels is stilled,
when the star in the sky is gone,
when the kings and princes are home,
when the shepherds are back with their flocks,
the work of Christmas begins:

to find the lost,
to heal the broken,
to feed the hungry,
to release the prisoner,
to rebuild the nations,
to bring peace among the people,
to make music in the heart.

"Now the Work of Christmas Begins" composed by Howard Thurman

All Powerful God,
Watch over all our dear ones who serve this day in the military.
Hold them safely in the palm of your hand.
Walk with them in your strength.
Bring comfort and hope when they are weary.
Remind them of our love.
Merciful Lord,
Bring a lasting peace into our midst.
Heal our hearts and help all nations find ways to live in harmony
So that blood is shed no more.
We ask this in the name of Christ Jesus,
Prince of Peace. Amen

With cold and flu season upon us, and widespread activity in our area, we will only be offering Communion under a single species until further notice.

FEAST OF ST. BLAISE
Blessing of Throats on February 2nd & 3rd

St. Blaise was a fourth century bishop who lived in Armenia.

Devotion to him has been popular throughout the ages. Much of what is known about the life of St. Blaise comes from the legends about his life.

Historical proof exists that Blaise was martyred for the Faith in his diocese of Sebastea in Armenia in the year 316. The legends surrounding Blaise state that during the persecution of Licinius, Blaise was forced into exile into the hills in the backcountry of his diocese. There he lived as a hermit, spending his days in prayer and penance.

The legends say that one of the products of Blaise's holiness was that even the most wild of animals became his companions without any harm to him. One day hunters discovered Blaise while seeking wild animals for the amphitheater and arrested him as a Christian. Blaise was taken to prison, but on the way there he interceded to God on the behalf of a child who was choking to death on a fish bone. The child was cured, but Blaise was forced to continue on his way to prison. While in prison, Blaise confirmed that he was Christian and was given the chance to recant his profession of Faith if he offered worship to pagan idols. Blaise refused even after being tortured by having his flesh torn with iron combs and rakes. Blaise was beheaded and granted entrance to heaven.

The blessing of throats will take place on February 2nd and 3rd after each Mass.

"A Scout is Reverent "

On Sunday, February 10 the Boy Scouts of America celebrate Scout Sunday in many churches across the U. S. The Scout Sunday tradition was started to make people in houses of worship aware of scouting, and to allow scouts to live out their "Duty to God" pledge.

The Scout Law says that a "Scout is reverent" and Scouts of all ages promise to do their "Duty to God." These values strengthen our youths' character in their family, community and faith.

St. Matthew Parish will celebrate Scout Sunday with their scouting families at all Masses on February 10. Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and adult Scouters are asked to wear their Class A uniforms to Mass this day. Scouts in uniform will be asked to present the gifts during 9:15 and 10:45 Mass and help pass out Sunday bulletins after Mass.

For families interested in finding out more about Scouting, scouts from Troop 496 and Pack 496 will hand out information at a table in the vestibule of the Church after each Mass.

Please support the Girl Scouts by purchasing cookies in the vestibule on February 16th and 17th after all Masses. For $5.00 a box, you can choose from your favorites: Samoas, Thin Mints, Tagalongs, Trefoils, DoSiDos, Toffee Tastics, Savannah Smiles.

On a diet? Donate cookies to the military. (Cash or checks accepted).

WEST SIDE COMMUNITY CENTER WSCC

Piles of brightly wrapped gifts filled our home — every room was decorated with gifts to so many less fortunate children. I saw beyond the packages, I saw the true love of neighbors seeing the needs of others.

I saw the care that went into the transformation of a name on an ornament into the fulfillement of a child's wish.

I saw a smile on a little one's face as she was handed her gift. She knows she was not forgotten — someone cared for her. In that magical moment, she found a new friend.

Again I am in awe of the unselfish parishoners who made this Christmas program so successful.

It truly takes a parish to meet the needs of so many families in need.

You are a community that cares. You have spread the spirit of St. Matthews to so many new friends across the North west suburbs and Chicago's West Side.

Gratefully,
Jim Quirt

Following the celebration of the Eucharist there is a ten (10) minute period of silence before any other devotion begins during the week.

Popular piety extends, but does not replace, the liturgical life of the Church. The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy of the Second Vatican Council teaches that "devotions should be so drawn that they harmonize with the liturgical seasons, are in accord with the sacred liturgy and are in some way derived from it and lead people to it since the liturgy by its very nature far surpasses any of them."
(Sacrosanctum Concilium #13.3)
