A Message from the Pastor:

Fifth Week of Easter: The Holy Gospel According to John (Jn 14:1-12)

The relationship between Jesus and some of His closest friends is very interesting, if not filled with intrigue. While this is an Easter story, it is perhaps best understood by reflecting back on Jesus' teachings from the point of view of the resurrection and ascension and connecting the dots of the before and after experiences.

Today's gospel setting takes place at the Last Supper after the washing of the feet and before Jesus and His disciples go to the garden to pray. As always, Jesus continues to teach by word and example. They hear Him, they listen to Him, but it's not sinking in even on the threshold of the great passion that is to take place. They don't get it. They don't really understand. These disciples are a unique bunch. They associate with Him; follow Him; pray with Him; eat with Him; and flee from Him when their safety is threatened, except for John and a few women including His mother. Nonetheless, at all times even when frustrated, Jesus projects a vision of hope for His followers to sustain them on the journey. He doesn't give up on them.

One powerful example is His response to Thomas' protest, "Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?" Jesus' response is to identify Himself with the One who sent Him to us and fulfill the ultimate promise of redemption: "I AM the way, the truth, and the life." Yes, this Jesus is the one who guides us along the path in life we journey; He is the truth that enlightens us in our darkness; He is the life that sustains us through our reception of the Eucharist and lives in and with and through us, transforming our lives and patiently waiting for us to let go of our fears and believe and trust in Him.

We hear many voices today mimicking the voice of the Christ, the Risen Lord. If Christ is not the focus and center of our life, then who or what is?

At the Last Supper in John's Gospel, Jesus is most interested in building relationships: "Do this in memory of Me." John's Jesus doesn't want to confuse God's reign among us with any institution or structure. Rather it is like today's new 5G technology, an ever expanding web of relationships that binds us to each other and with God. We will make mistakes along the way, but God is patient with us. To encounter our God, He asks that we strive to follow this command "Love one another as I have loved you." It's at this point that faith and hope are overshadowed by love. This love isn't a feeling, it is a choice and commitment. Jesus, in love holds nothing back from us including His life, and He asks us to do the same.

This weekend we celebrate Mother's Day. Be as thoughtful as possible in recognizing the important role that mothers, and those who are like mothers to us, play in our lives. Remember Ma Bell, of ancient history, "Reach out and touch someone"? Make a difference. Heal strained relations. When necessary, forgive and be forgiven. Remember love is choice and a commitment. A broken relationship with a mother, or those who are like mothers to us, can be more devastating than even the present pandemic. Jesus taught us "Do not let your hearts be troubled."

Happy Mother's Day to all! On this day, we ask God to bless all mothers and those who have provided motherly care to us.

Fr. Joseph Glab, CR

In order to accomplish this we ask that you either drop off your offertory donation in the Rectory Drop box labelled "Rectory Mail" (which drops into the building); or via Online Giving through the parish web site or send your offering by mail to the Parish Office.

Thank you for your continued generous support of St. Matthew Parish especially during this unprecedented time dealing with the pandemic. All of you, our parishioners, are remembered every day at the Mass I celebrate each day here at St. Matthew. Let us continue to support one another through prayer and good works.

Dear Father Joseph,

Thank you for sending your parish donation from your November collections in support of our Northwest Region Supper Program and thank you for your prayers for our staff and the people in need who come to Catholic Charities every day.

You have made a great commitment to Catholic Charities and to those we serve. These suppers have become a lifeline to those who come to eat. Eating a nourishing meal in a dignified and respectful setting helps our guests deal with the issues they are facing.

Your support is so crucial in continuing this program. Our guests are aware that we rely on donations. This awareness that people are concerned about their welfare gives them comfort and hope.

Sincerely,

POPE FRANCIS SPEAKS AGAINST DOMESTIC VIOLENCE:

In the Joy of Love (Nos. 54, 104), Pope Francis shows himself a champion in defending women victims. He states forcefully: “I think particularly of the shameful ill-treatment to which women are sometimes subjected, domestic violence and various forms of enslavement, which, rather than a show of masculine power, are craven acts of cowardice. The verbal, physical, and sexual violence that women endure in some marriages contradicts the very nature of the conjugal union.... If we must fight evil, so be it; but we must always say “no” to violence in the home.

WHERE TO FIND HELP: The National Domestic Violence Hotline provides 24/7 crisis intervention and referrals to local sources of help in all 50 states. Call 1-800-799-SAFE (7233) or 1-800-787-3224 (TTY).

Crisis times, such as this pandemic, disrupt all of our lives. Some of us are getting through these times with simple inconveniences; others of us are trying to figure out how to meet our basic needs. Now is the time to remember, you’re not alone in this.

If you need someone to talk to about your faith, or where is God at in this moment in your life, please give us a call at the parish office at 847-891-1220.

There is nothing wrong with recognizing that you need help navigating your current circumstances. If you, or your family are struggling in these challenging times, consider reaching out for counseling services. Catholic Charities helps connect individuals and families to individual, family and marriage counseling, mental health concerns, substance abuse and domestic violence and also provides resources to assist with emergency needs for housing, clothing and food assistance. They can connect you to a vast array of services and professionals who can connect you to confidential help and needed resources.

For these types of services, please reach out to Sr.Chiomma Ahanju at 312-655-7149 and let her know St. Matthew has referred you.

If you’re not sure whether your needs are pastoral or professional, call us at the Parish and we can help connect you to the appropriate resource.

Food Drive For Catholic Charities

Catholic Charities Northwest has reached out to us to ask if we can help them refill their food pantry. They are struggling to meet the needs of the families that come to them each week. If you can help, please drop off the non-perishable (and not expired) items in boxes or bags in front of the main doors of the church from 10am-2pm Mondays-Fridays. If you prefer to drop off a gift card or monetary donation, please drop that in the Rectory Mail drop box.
