Reporting Child Abuse

Victim-survivors of clergy sex abuse have the right to report their stories. We are here to help, listen, and connect them with the right services. Report all allegations concerning the abuse and /or neglect of minors to the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS) Hotline (1-800-25-abuse) and /or the local police department first before reaching out to the Archdiocese of Chicago Office for the Protection of Children and Youth (OPCY). To report historical abuse in the Archdiocese of Chicago, please contact OPCY at 312-534-5254. We also encourage victim-survivors to connect directly with leaders from the Office of Assistance Ministry, a division of OPCY that provides care, support and resources to victim/survivors of clerical sexual abuse, and their loved ones, in their efforts to achieve psychological, emotional and spiritual healing.

THE MOVING WALL

Domestic violence and abuse can happen to anyone, regardless of size, gender, or strength, yet the problem is often overlooked, excused, or denied. This is especially true when the abuse is psychological, rather than physical. Emotional abuse is often minimized, yet it can leave deep and lasting scars.
Noticing and acknowledging the warning signs and symptoms of domestic violence and abuse is the first step to ending it. No one should live in fear of the person they love. If you recognize yourself or someone you know in the following description of abuse, don't hesitate to reach out. There is help available.

Understanding domestic violence and abuse

Domestic abuse, also known as spousal abuse, occurs when one person in an intimate relationship or marriage tries to dominate and control the other person. Domestic abuse that includes physical violence is called domestic violence.

Domestic violence and abuse are used for one purpose and one purpose only: to gain and maintain total control over you. An abuser doesn't "play fair." Abusers use fear, guilt, shame, and intimidation to wear you down and keep you under his or her thumb. Your abuser may also threaten you, hurt you, or hurt those around you.

Domestic violence and abuse does not discriminate. It occurs within all age ranges, ethnic backgrounds, and economic levels. And while women are more commonly victimized, men are also abused—especially verbally and emotionally, although sometimes even physically as well. The bottom line is that abusive behavior is never acceptable, whether it's coming from a man, a woman, a teenager, or an older adult. You deserve to feel valued, respected, and safe. (Authors: Melinda Smith, M.A., and Jeanne Segal, Ph.D., June 2011.)

FOR HELP: The National Domestic Violence Hotline provides 24/7 crisis intervention and referrals to local sources of help in all 50 states. Call 1-800-799-SAFE (7233) or 1-800-787-3224 (TTY).

OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

August 5, 2019

St. Matthew Parish
Attn: Jim Hinkler
1001 E. Schaumburg Rd.
Schaumburg, IL 60194

Dear Mr. Hinkler,

Thank you for your donation of nearly 100 bags of clothing for the clothing room at the Catholic Charities office in Des Plaines. Your generosity helps us meet the basic needs of families in the northwest suburbs.

Our clothing room provides clean, gently used clothing, shoes and outer wear to more than 2,300 households with nearly 8,200 people every year. We also provide new socks and undergarments, toiletries, small household items and other necessities to families in need.

Your donation provides not only clothing to those in need, but also encouragement and hope. When an immediate need for clothing is met, there is breathing room and renewed strength to face other challenges.

Thank you again for your support. With your help, we are making a difference in the lives of those in need.

Regards,

Thank you!

Mike Waters

Following the celebration of the Eucharist there is a ten (10) minute period of silence before any other devotion begins during the week.

Popular piety extends, but does not replace, the liturgical life of the Church. The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy of the Second Vatican Council teaches that "devotions should be so drawn that they harmonize with the liturgical seasons, are in accord with the sacred liturgy and are in some way derived from it and lead people to it since the liturgy by its very nature far surpasses any of them."
(Sacrosanctum Concilium #13.3)
